

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“Since love grows within you, so beauty grows. For love is the beauty of the soul.”

MOMENTS IN BLACK HISTORY

Mayor Vi Lyles made history in December 2017 when she took office in Charlotte, N.C. as the city’s first Black woman mayor. With her balanced leadership style, Mayor Lyles has been a breath of fresh air and inspiration to many in the Queen City. Born Viola Alexander on September 28, she was raised in Columbia, S.C. by her father, a construction company owner, and her mother, who worked as a schoolteacher. She earned her political science bachelor’s degree from Queens University of Charlotte, and a master’s degree in public administration from the University of North Carolina. Prior to her mayoral duties, Lyles served on the Charlotte City Council from 2013 until being elected mayor pro tem in 2015. She defeated incumbent Mayor Jennifer Roberts in the 2017 primaries, and vanquished her Republican opponent Kenny Smith, a city council member, in the general election. Along with being Charlotte’s first Black woman mayor, she is also the first mayor to serve in the role after previously being a city administrator. Lyles, a mother of two, was married to John Lyles Sr. from 1996 until his death in 2013. Mayor Lyles has drawn praise from Republicans in her state by way of her willingness to reach across the aisle for the better of Charlotte overall. This balanced perception of her leadership style has endeared her to all in the city and beyond.

Religious Education:

Notify the parish office if you have a child to be baptized or if you, your spouse, family member, or friend wishes to be baptized in the Catholic Church. Preparation for First Communion normally begins in first grade and continues through second grade. Baptized children are required to attend PRE classes regularly so that they are intellectually and spiritually ready for First Communion.

St. Augustine Catholic Church

March 17, 2019 - 2nd Sunday of Lent

In his Transfiguration, we see an anticipation of the glory of Jesus' Resurrection. In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, the disciples keep secret what they have seen. Not until they also witness his Passion and death will the disciples understand Jesus' Transfiguration. We hear this story of Jesus' Transfiguration early in Lent, but we have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of it, we anticipate Jesus' Resurrection even as we prepare to remember Jesus' Passion and death.
